Jools and Jim's Joyride Podcast

Jim Moir and Jools Holland are the latest celebrities bringing escapist joy in their transport-themed podcast. It's a laid-back affair, with the pair reluctant to hog the show, unless it's to talk about their love of cooling towers. Jane Horrocks reveals her "slow and angry" driving style, while Bob Mortimer is a familiar interviewee, reflecting on afternoon naps in a car park. This week sees Sally Phillips talking about her jet-setting childhood. Guests coming up include Nitin Sawhney and Jessie Ware. HV
